Located on Manhattan’s West Side, the Javits Center is the busiest convention center in the United States, hosting a variety of events that support New York’s hotel, restaurant, tourism and transportation industries. Designed by I.M. Pei & Partners, the iconic venue opened in 1986 and has since become New York’s primary venue for large conventions, trade shows and special events, attracting millions of visitors from around the world each year. These large-scale events generate more than $2 billion in annual economic activity for New York City and New York State and support as many as 18,000 jobs in and around the facility. Operated by the New York Convention Center Operating Corporation (NYCCOC), the Javits Center has 760,000 square feet of total exhibition space, 102 meeting rooms and four banquet halls, as well as a range of technology services, including WiFi access.
